

263

1912 Dates J-BK

the Goths destroyed the great Temple to Diana in Ephesus
they never recovered.

C263-339?

Greece

Chronologists

The use of these chronological possibilities is best seen in historians using the annalistic method, of whom DIODORUS SICULUS is more notable.

In the Christian period, Eusebius followed by St. Jerome, began the work of reconciling all these indications to the Judaic traditions and produced the foundation of chronology in terms of the Julian Cal.

upon which modern historians have constructed their framework.

C263

Aqui Documents abandoned by Romans Area north of Sirtz Island